VICT.MS OF THE "RAG GANG."

An Old Man Robbed and an Officer Stabbed Near to Death.

All-Night Battle of the Police with a Band of East-Side Thugs.

Members of the "Rag Gang" of tought and crooks wended their way to the Yorkville Police Court this morning to see how severe the law would be with five prominent members of the hand, who "held a man up" on the streets before dark last night and rolibed him, and later on stabbed a police-man nearly to death.

The trouble broke out in Capt. Ryan's pre-cinct about 6 o'clock last night, and his policemen did not stop clubbing and arresting young thugs until nearly daylight this morning.

It was long before dark when Patrick H. Corbaily, of 304 East Forty-fourth street, was leading a horse through East Thirty-eighth street. He had nearly reached First
